THE PEDIGREE OF 'THE ARMAGH SHIRAZ'

The Armagh Shiraz has achieved extraordinary success and is regarded as one of Australia's highest quality wines, being rated "Exceptional" in Langton's Classification of Australian Wine. The name of 'Armagh' was bestowed by the original Irish settlers who arrived in 1849, and named after the lush rolling hills of their homeland. The vineyard was planted by Jim Barry in 1968 and yields less than two tonnes per acre.
