

The Compañía Vinícola del Norte de España, or C.V.N.E., was founded in 1879 by two brothers, Eusebio and Raimundo Real de Asúa.

To this day, C.V.N.E. remains firmly in the hands of the founding family, and is considered one of Rioja's first growths. This wine was born as a tribute to its founders, the Real de Asúa brothers, and to the cities of Bilbao and Haro that saw them and the Company flourish.

2019

97 Points - James Suckling 96 Points - Jane Anson |
96 Points - Wine Advocate

2018

95 Points - Robert Parker
95 Points "Wine of the year" - Tim Atkin
94 Points - James Suckling
93 Points - Jane Anson

2016

97 Points - James Suckling
96 Points "Editor's Choice" - Wine Enthusiast
96 Points "Wine of the year" - Tim Atkin
95 Points - Anuario de los vinos, El País
95 Points - Jane Anson

2015

97 Points - James Suckling
95 Points - Anuario de los vinos, El País
94 Points - Jane Anson

2012

96 Points - Anuario de los vinos, El País

2011

94 Points - Jane Anson

2010

96 Points - Wine Enthusiast

2005

94+ Points - Robert Parker

2004

95+ Points - Robert Parker
94 Points - Vinous, explore all things wine
94 Points - Anuario de los vinos, El País

2001

99 Points - James Suckling
96 Points - Jane Anson

2000

94 Points - Jane Anson

1999

92 Points - Jane Anson

1996

93 Points - Jane Anson

1994

94 Points - Jane Anson

